Movie Presentation

3:50 PM- 5:20 PM	"After the Last River" (Directed by Victoria Lean)
------------------	--

This film is about the resistance of a First Nations community, located in Northern Ontario, impacted by diamond mining along the river of the community's traditional land. Without access to education, healthcare and housing, the community failed to benefit from the promise of mining related jobs. The film provides an in-depth view of contemporary inequalities between Indigenous peoples and Canadian settler society. It also explores the development of one of the largest indigenous movements in Canada and the fight for Indigenous rights and environmental protection.

Synopsis: "In the shadow of a De Beers mine, the remote community of Attawapiskat lurches from crisis to crisis, while facing mounting environmental issues and an inability to directly benefit from resource revenues. Filmed over five years, After the Last River is a point of view documentary that follows Attawapiskat's journey from obscurity and into the international spotlight during the protests of Idle No More" (<http://www.afterthelastrivermovie.com/the-film/>).
